

2017 Annual Meeting in Tacoma, Washington

44th Annual Meeting Tacoma, Washington 22-25 February 2017

The 2017 Annual Meeting of the Pacific Seabird Group will be held at the Greater Tacoma Convention and Trade Center in downtown Tacoma, 22-25 February 2017.

Call for proposals and deadlines for abstracts, travel award applications, and registration will be announced in June 2017. Information on hotels, field trips, and volunteer opportunities coming soon! Please check the PSG Website for updates.

You thought Hawaii was the perfect meeting spot? Try Tacoma, the City of Destiny! Tacoma is ideally situated along the shores of southern Puget Sound where you'll find great places to run, hike, kayak, paddleboard and, of course, birdwatch - Puget Sound is a nationally significant wintering area for a wide diversity of marine birds. Boasting stunning natural surroundings, with Mount Rainier in full view, you can enjoy the mesmerizing outdoors just minutes from the downtown. Tacoma's downtown core has undergone significant urban renewal with growing food, music and artistic scenes. Conference attendees will have easy access to museums, urban parks, fine dining, nightlife, microbreweries, and local coffee and tea shops. Within walking distance of the conference hotel, attendees will find the Washington State History Museum, the Tacoma Art Museum, and the Tacoma Museum of Glass (think Dale Chihuly).
