

Pacific Seabird Group 2017
Conservation Committee Meeting
Vice-Chair for Conservation: Stan Senner

Date: Saturday 25 February 2017

Time: 1200 – 1300. Lunch provided for attendees.

Location: TCC, Ballroom A/B

The Conservation Committee takes an active role in promoting conservation of seabirds. Current activities include following issues and legislation relating to seabird conservation, oil spill litigation, by-catch of albatrosses and other seabirds in fisheries and keeping all PSG members apprised of developments. The Conservation Committee often provides support for seabird conservation measures and criticism of activities that will likely harm seabirds or the marine environment. Conservation letters can be found on the PSG website.

Agenda

1. Introductory Remarks (Stan Senner, Vice-Chair for Conservation)
2. Report on PSG's Policy Interventions and Outcomes in 2016 (Senner)
3. Request for Technical Assistance for the IUCN Red Data Book (Senner will present on behalf of John Croxall at BirdLife International)
4. Pacific Bird Habitat Joint Venture and Request for Seabird Input and Representation (Bradley Bales, U.S. Coordinator for the PBHJV)
5. Discussion regarding PSG Conservation Roles and Priorities in 2017 (Mark Rauzon, new Vice-Chair for Conservation)
6. Other items.